

Advocate Harbour - Cape D'Or

Featuring:

- Cape Chignecto Provincial Park
 - Cape d'Or Lighthouse
 - Horse Shoe Cove Beach
 - Advocate Beach
- Guided Sea Kayaking Tours

Discover one of the most scenic coastal drives in Canada! Where the Cobequid Mountains meet the Bay, continue from Joggins on Route 209 to the seaside communities of Apple River, Advocate Harbour, and Cape D'Or where magnificent views from rocky cliff tops, beaches, trails, and parks are found.

Located in Advocate is Cape Chignecto - Nova Scotia's largest Provincial Park and a hiker's paradise. Here you can walk the beach or hike along cliff tops for spectacular views 600ft above the Bay of Fundy. The park offers 29 km (18 miles) of predominately coastal hiking trails, along with 51 backcountry hike-in campsites, 37 walk-in campsites, wilderness cabin and bunkhouse, picnic area, interpretive centre with gift shop and accessible washrooms. Opening in 2008, the Eatonville day-use park will feature accessible walking trails suitable for families and the physically challenged, scenic viewing stations, and a renewable energy Interpretive Centre. Advocate Beach in West Advocate is an experience for the contemplative and the observant with magnificent sunsets, and views of Cape d'Or and Cape Chignecto.

In Advocate Harbour fishing boats tied up at the wharf demonstrate the range of the Fundy tides as they bob above water at one moment and are sitting on the ocean floor hours later at the next. Advocate Harbour is also the starting point of an incredible guided sea kayaking adventure on the Bay of Fundy - a great way to experience the amazing coastal beauty of the area. A drive to Cape D'Or is a must for sightseers! Visit Horseshoe Cove Beach before reaching the spectacular views which overlook the Cape D'Or Lighthouse. Along with coastal trails high above the surf line, there is also a fully automated lighthouse, a restaurant and guesthouse.
